

Center for Law and Social Science Fellowship
2022-23 Application Form

Name: _____ Class Year: _____

Major(s): _____

Minor(s): _____

Have you taken or are currently enrolled in POLS 208?     Yes     No

If yes, please indicate the semester and grade: _____

If no, are you enrolled in POLS 208 for Fall 2022?     Yes     No

Applicants who have not completed POLS 208 and will not complete it in Fall 2022 but have a comparable combination of coursework in research design AND research experience may receive consideration. Please attach documentation of BOTH of these experiences to this application. For coursework, please include the syllabi of relevant courses you have taken as well as papers, assignments, etc. that best demonstrate your knowledge of research design and the research process. For research experience, please include any research products you have produced, whether in or out of the classroom.

Please indicate an Emory faculty member that you have worked with or taken a class with that could serve as a reference. You should not solicit a letter of recommendation. The faculty member will be contacted directly by the selection committee if any additional information is required: _____

To complete your application, please submit the following in addition to this form:

- An unofficial transcript
- A personal statement (maximum one single-spaced page) describing your research interests and career goals

All application materials should be emailed in PDF format to Rob La Terza (rob.la.terza@emory.edu) no later than Friday May 13, 2022.

If you have any questions about the application process, please contact Prof. Alex Bolton (abolton@emory.edu).
